Genetics Testing and Information 2 - Provider
What would your employer or your insurance company do if they had easy access to your genetic makeup? Do you think people without health insurance deserve inexpensive access to genetic testing? This module examines the increasing availability of genetic testing and associated need for confidentiality and counseling.