YIKES! I’M A LEADER?!

Now what?

ANA DISON
STUDENT SUCCESS DIRECTOR
WOMEN IN ENGINEERING PROGRAM

CONDUCT/TEACHES THE LEADERSHIP SEMINAR EACH FALL SEMESTER
Discussion is expected!

1 minute to meet the people next to you
Shout out three things you want to get out of this session or out of today’s conference
1. Discuss what it means to be a leader
2. Make you aware of your attitude about leading others (self-assess)
3. Point you in the direction of what growth opportunities you have
DO I WANT TO BE IN A LEADERSHIP ROLE?

• How many of you have been thrust into a leadership position unexpectedly?
• Anyone had an officer in a student org leave their position suddenly?
• A co-worker leave? Or not show up?
• How many have had to jump in and manage a situation, take charge or try and get control of things?
• Do you think you will be faced with this in the future?
DO I WANT TO BE IN A LEADERSHIP ROLE?

- What happened?
- Were you prepared?
- Were you comfortable?
- Would you do it again?
- What do you feel uncomfortable doing as a leader?
1. The first step in changing behavior or attitude is consciousness.
2. Are you aware of your attitude toward a leadership role?
3. Is it positive or negative?
4. Is your attitude working for you?
5. Do you want to be a better, more effective leader?
6. Can you see how this might give you a competitive advantage in the job search process?
Take a few moments to complete the 20 question self-assessment.

Be ready to discuss your thoughts about leading others.
50 and higher?
Less than 50?

What does this mean?
How does this relate to you as a student? As a new professional?
Take a few moments to complete the 14 question self assessment.

Be ready to discuss your level of motivation to lead others.
How motivated are you to lead others?

What could make you a better leader?

Where are your opportunities for growth?
