Stem Cell Research

Engineers are faced with issues that require the ability to use scientific fact to back up an ethical viewpoint. In this module, students will look at stem cell research and the pros and cons regarding stem cell use in order to construct an ethical argument.