☐ I am interested in the institutional award.

If a review of your records indicates that you are eligible for a tuition rebate, your rebate will be reduced by the amount of any outstanding student loans, including emergency loans, owed to or guaranteed by the State of Texas.

If you paid UT Austin less than $1,000 in tuition, you may qualify for an increase in the amount of your rebate, not to exceed $1,000, by providing proof of tuition paid to other Texas institutions of higher education. To apply for an increase, attach fee bills to this application that show institution, semester, fee amount paid, fee payment date, and method of payment (e.g., cash, check, loan, scholarship, credit card).

Your rebate, less amounts credited to outstanding student loans, will be mailed within sixty days following graduation to your permanent address as maintained by the Office of the Registrar. You may update your permanent address at http://www.registrar.utexas.edu/services/ or by writing or coming in person to the Office of the Registrar. If you have a direct deposit authorization on file with Student Accounts Receivable, the rebate will be deposited into your bank account.

This application for a rebate of tuition will apply to the degree and graduation date indicated on this form. If your proposed degree or date of graduation changes, you must file a new application for a rebate.

Hours attempted” means all the courses you have undertaken, including courses you took at another college or university; courses you failed; courses you repeated; courses you dropped or withdrew from after the official enrollment count for the term was taken; developmental courses that you took for credit; and internship and cooperative education courses. If you earned credit by exam, the first nine hours are not counted toward your hours attempted, but hours beyond the first nine are counted. If you took a course to meet an ROTC requirement and the course was not also required for your degree, the course is not included in hours attempted.

If you dropped or withdrew from a course after the twelfth class day in the fall or spring or the fourth class day in the summer for reasons that were totally beyond your control, the course will not be included in hours attempted. To ask that a course be excluded from hours attempted, explain the reasons that you dropped or withdrew from it on a separate page; you must also attach documentation to support your reasons.
